OUR STORY

At HOOF, quality is paramount. The beef and potatoes we serve come from our farm on Romney Marsh, just four miles away. We are a third-generation farming family and our belief in nurturing cattle to produce the best meat, coupled with our production of spuds, inspired us to launch a burger restaurant so we could see people enjoying the end result for ourselves. Nothing but prime beef is used for our trademark burgers and succulent steaks. We offer good, honest food in a relaxed environment. The perfect place to chew the cud!
